Irishmen-Record of Criminal Doings from All Sections.

CAMDEN, N. J., Sept. 6 .- A brutal and orrible murder was committed this morning at Leconly's mill, two miles beyond ferchantville. Annie Leconiy, 28 years old, the niece and housekeeper of Chalkley econly, the miller, had her throat cut from ear to ear by a brute, who first atempted to outrage her, and after murder added robbery to his crime. Leconly and a colored farm hand named Murray after breakfast this morning went out into the held to gather melons for market. The siece remained alone in the farm house, waiting for another colored farm hand, named Frank Lingo, to come to breaktast. An hour later Lizzie O'Donnell, a young girl residing on a neighboring farm, came to Leconly's house and found Annie's corpse weltering in blood on the floor. She ran into the field and summoned Leconly and Murray. Lingo was arrested this afternoon while at work on the farm a miles and Murray. Lingo was arrested this afternoon while at work on the farm, a miles from the scene of the murder. He is married and has a family. He left his home at 6 c'clock this morning to go to work on the farm and claims to have arrived there at 6:15, and not to have left it until arrested. Officers are inclined to think Ling is not guilty. The murdered girl was of a pleas ant disposition and exemplary habits. She acted as housekeeper for her uncle, Henry Leconly, who ran the mills until his death, early last spring. He left an estate said to be worth $25,000, and his niece had a claim against it for seven years' services as house. against it for seven years' services as house-keeper. It is said Chalkly Leconly dis-puted this claim of his niece on the estate. But so far as known they never had a

The murderer then robbed the store, after which the body was placed between two cotton mattresses which were set on fire. The fire burned slowly and when the body was found by members of the family one arm and a portion of the face only was burned off. Two negroes who acted suspiciously were arrested.

Fatal Renewal of an Old Quarrel. WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 9 .- A terrible pooting affray occurred at North Springs, Wyoming county, yesterday, in which three miners, named Lester, Collins and West were engaged. The quarrel arose over an old grudge between Collins and West. Lester and West assaulted Collins and shot him twice. Collins returned the fire wounding both men. A third shot from West's revolver blew Collins' brains out. Lester died from his wounds.

HIAWATHA, Kas. Sept. 9 .- Dick Fisher, altas Dick Rhodes, a negro wanted in Dawson county Kansas, for rape and horse stealing, was captured here yesterday and take him to White Cloud, where he had committed the crime. Word came from there to night that a determined mob attacked the sheriff, took the prisoner from him and him. m and hung him.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Sept. 9.-H. D. Castlenear Thomasville, was fatally shot last night while trying to arrest a negro for inciting a riot. After Castleberry was shot he returned the negro's fire, and a general shooting began between the whites and blacks, in which the negro was fatally wounded. Race trouble seemed imminent for a time, but it was averted.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 9 .- The essed beef senatorial investigation comnittee began its session here this morning. The examination of George W. Glick, of Atchison, ex-governor of Kansas, and Charles Durst, of Atchison, occupied the morning. Both are stockmen. Glick testified that he had been in the cattle raising business for thirty years, during which voting, and that each county be made a 30 or 40 per cent. The cause of this, wittime the prices of cattle had depreciated ness said, was the establishment in Kansas City of great packing interests, which desloped at first great competition among veloped at first great competition among the sellers of cattle and afterwards a combination among the packers, which was soon so powerful that its members could buy cattle at their own prices.

"Have you and knowledge of the workings of the combine?" asked Senator Vest.

"Yes. I have shipped cattle to Kansas. City and placed them on the market at the market price. The packers' buyers protested the price was too high and assured me if I did not want to sell at their price I could reship my cattle to Chicago. I did

Witness testified further that the effect had been to drive many cattle men of Kansas out of the business. The packers also controlled the rate on the railroads to the extent that the packers of Kansas City had almost ruined the butchers' business of Atchison, and would have done so entirely had not the city council passed an ordinance requiring the inspection of beef on the hoof.

In the afternoon ex-Governor Glick, of Kansas, was called and asked regarding the sanitary regulations of the Kansas price of cattle had depreciated fully three or four dollars per cwt. within the past five years.
